Dan Runs for Mum

Hi, I'm Daniel Maltby - Danny to my friends.

Many of you will have known my wonderful mum, Tracey Maltby. She grew up in Milton from a very young age, where she then married and brought her family up.

Mum was very loving, caring, warm, and friendly. Her strength and kindhearted nature towards others made many unaware of the illness she was coping with.

For eight long years mum fought breast cancer and in September last year her battle ended. We all miss her terribly and will never forget her courage, which was a great inspiration to others.

At present I am in training as on Sunday 18th April I will be running in the London Marathon, with pride, in memory of my mum, who will always be close in my heart. As mum touched so many other hearts I know that many of you would want to sponsor me. All the sponsorship money I raise will go directly to the charity Breakthrough Breast Cancer, which is a mission to eradicate the disease through awareness campaigns and medical research.

Sponsor forms will be available at various places in Milton (depending on who will allow them), hopefully this will be at most shops and other places such as Cambridge Building Society, community centre and doctors surgery, alternatively you can send me an e-mail with your name, address to danmaltby@aol.com

*Thank you
Daniel Maltby*

Remembering Ten Years of Milton Country Park

A new piece of art work has been installed in the Sensory Garden at Milton Country Park as a permanent marker of the park's 10th anniversary.

A bench back has been replaced with a new back made of carved, cedar sandblasted wood. The design of the wooden panel charts the changes throughout the history of the park from quarry and scrapyard to the established park complete with visitor's centre that stands on the site today. It was made by Greenspace Design, based in Devon, to a design by Mike Langman, a renowned bird artist and illustrator. Milton Country Park opened in May 1993 and has held a series of events since May 2003 to mark the anniversary. The bench back unveiling is the final event of the anniversary year.

The park staff would like to thank the Friends of Milton Country Park, visitors and everyone else who has helped make the anniversary year a year to remember.

District Council Elections

This year for the first time two District Councillors will represent Milton; in the past there has just been one. The election will take place in June and will be an excellent opportunity for anybody who has ever thought of being a councillor to take that first step.

For further details contact South Cambridgeshire District Council.

Dog Fouling

We have had complaints about dog fouling on footpaths near the school and the country park.

We know that many dog owners are responsible people and do clear up after their dogs but would remind everyone to clear up after their dogs. There is a fine of up to £1,000 for anyone who fails to do this.

Goodbye to our Friends

At the end of April Jeanne and Roy Page will be moving from Fen Road to Hopton on Sea and will be very sorry to leave so many friends behind. Thanks for 40 years of happiness.

TV Interference on BBC

There have been numerous reports about interference of the BBC television signals recently. Barry Want of Landbeach Road, supported by other local residents contacted the Radio Communications Agency to complain. The agency have investigated the matter and found that some new aerials placed in the north of the village have been interfering with the BBC signals. This appears to have now been dealt with.

Milton Toy Library

Do your children get fed up with the same old toys?

Would you like to get out more and meet other parents with young children?

Then why not join Milton Toy Library? We stock a wide range of toys suitable for babies and children from birth to 5+ years. Annual family membership is only £2.00 and then each toy costs about £1.00 to hire for two or three weeks.

The Library is also a good way to spend a Thursday morning. While the children are trying out the toys the parents can sit and have a drink and a chat with other parents.

We are currently stocking up with new toys so now is a good time to join. We meet every first and third Thursday of the month at the Milton Community Centre from 10.00 am - 11.30 am.

For more information please ring Corrina on (01223) 440897 or Louise on (01223) 863401 or just come along to the next session. Look forward to seeing you.

Daytime Burglaries

There have been daytime burglaries in the areas of the Sycamores, Rowans and surrounding areas in the past few weeks. Pc Shulver commented that if you see anything you think looks suspicious please report it without delay. Ensure your houses are secured when you leave home. Don't make it easy for the burglars to gain access to your property.

Stampede at Milton Country Park Visitor Centre

This year's Annual Birdbox Day at the Country Park was a huge success. In six hours more than two dozen boxes were made, we have never had such a busy day for this event. Apologies to the few people who had to wait. It was good to see so many people turn up for this, and hopefully many of those boxes will be finding new residents soon. If making your own box was too much like hard work, locally made boxes for a range of species, are available for sale, see details in the visitor centre. Finally, thanks to the Rangers and the volunteers for their help at this event.

Well done that Gang!

Some of the cast members from Milton:

Guides: Fiona Sanderson, Ellie Smith.

Scouts: George Sanderson, James Ostler, Ben Potts.

Other cast members not in photo: Jack Aldhouse, Richard Weeks

Many thanks to all those who work so hard for months and months to make it all happen - but who needs thanks when they obviously enjoy it so much, most of them will be up for it again in 2 years' time!

Hazel Smith

Over February half-term 7 of Milton's teenagers were strutting their stuff on the stage at the Cambridge Arts Theatre for 6 performances, among a cast of around 80. They performed a great selection of sketches and song and dance numbers and raised over £1400 for the Sick Children's Trust. The Scouts and Guides had been rehearsing every Sunday afternoon since September, and it showed - the performance was very professional, and very well supported behind the scenes by the back-stage crew and brilliant band.

Grade-one-athon success

Nigel Fordham packing up the 77 instruments he borrowed for the Grade-one-athon charity event

Over £47,000 has already been raised by this event for Milton Childrens Hospice and money is still coming in. This was a fantastic and unique event - well done to everyone!

The 28 homes provided by the Benet Close estate was the first of a series of developments prior to the major project in the 1980s. Benet Close, unlike later estates, saw a redistribution of the local population rather than producing an influx of new family groups.

1950 to 2000

The drawings on page 3 & 4 show the dramatic change Milton has experienced over the last half century. Very few Cambridgeshire villages have been subjected to this degree of reconstruction; even the road systems have been radically altered.

Local band's CD named Radio Cambridgeshire's album of the month

The Radio Cowboys have just recorded their first CD after over 30 years of playing together. The band centres round John Holder (of Queen Anne Lodge, Fen Road) and Pete Sayers (of Radio Cambridgeshire fame). They first met in their teens on the 5:34 steam train between Cambridge and Ipswich in 1957 and have been friends ever since.

Pete has made a successful career for himself as an entertainer and bluegrass musician, which started when he spent several years in Nashville in the late 1960's playing with all the 'greats' of bluegrass music. When he returned in 1971, inspired by the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, he started the Grand Ole Opry, Newmarket with the Radio Cowboys as the house band! Some of you may remember the old Kingsway Cinema, which once a month throbbed to the sounds of the Radio Cowboys and many of the best UK and US acoustic musicians.

The Grand Ole Opry came to a natural conclusion in 1982, displaced by bingo and television. Pete Sayers went on to form the Grand Ole Opry Roadshow with Nick Barraclough (now of Radio 2) and they toured extensively in England and Europe. For the next 15 years, the Radio Cowboys met occasionally to scratch the old bluegrass itch.

In 1997 local fiddle player Greg Smith of Hall End joined the Radio Cowboys and gigs moved onto a more regular basis. The band now plays regularly around East Anglia, and has even played at the Milton Village Fayre and in Milton pubs. Those of you who haven't lost their Milton Millennium book can see photographic evidence of the Radio Cowboys on the page for July 20th. The band is currently fund-raising for Addenbrooke's Oncology Dept: catch their next concert at the Garden House Hotel on 2nd May.

The CD is not on general release, but you can pick up a copy for £10 by contacting Greg or Hazel Smith on 01223 860752.

I first heard this local band play whilst in Hazel Smiths kitchen and so enjoyed it that I travelled all the way to Kenilworth, near Coventry, recently to hear them play. It was well worth my while - they put on an entertaining show and the CD is very professional. JC

Milton 2000 – Minus a Year or Two - by Harry Missing - Continued from the February issue

Soon it was time for us young people to leave School. Sister left first of course and went into the village to work at Brown's Nursery where her first task was the removal of seed from Tomatoes. I remember it well because she was allowed to bring home the residue of the Tomatoes for our consumption and we lived on seedless tomatoes for quite some time. When my turn came a year or so later, Mr Green was surprised that I had not asked him for a job on the farm. Mother insisted that she was not going to have me coming home from work with dirty hands and clothes, as was the case with my brother. So office work for me, leaving school Friday afternoon for Christmas, 1934, starting work the next morning, no 'Gap' years in those days! People said I was very fortunate with so many unemployed at the time and particularly so when they became aware of the remuneration I received – 15/- (75p) per week, plus free tuition in shorthand writing.

It was perhaps a wise thing that Mother had insisted in this choice of career for me, for a couple of years later Mr Green died. His son Ronald inherited the business in which he had little enthusiasm. This in turn led to the sale of all stock and farm implements in Michaelmas 1936. Ronald then decided to set up a business in Milton, that of digging Sand and Gravel, which would ultimately bring about considerable changes in the environmental landscape features of the village. By this time Father had also decided that after over forty years as a horse keeper, he could not accept an offer from the new tenant of the farm, to continue in this role, although he was well aware this would mean vacating the farmhouse. This problem was soon resolved when my parents were offered the tenancy of a new house at 5 Landbeach Road, Milton, by Mr Jack Halls, which they accepted and the family connection with the farm ceased.

Milton as I first knew it, was tiny as compared to the village of today. Coming from Cambridge, the first domestic dwelling which stood on the left-hand side of the main road was at Bene't Farm, followed by the Day's house which recently suffered a fire. The two houses named 'Margaret' and 'Marian' (previously a Doctor's Surgery) together with those at the two Nurseries were the total of dwellings on that side of Cambridge Road. On the right-hand side there were no houses until the last of three pairs of Council Houses, probably now 6 Cambridge Road, was reached.

PUZZLE CORNER

The puzzle in the February issue proved a touch difficult, resulting in fewer entries than usual. The "pairs" featured were:

David and Jonathan
Antony and Cleopatra
Castor and Pollux
Daphnis and Chloe
Fifth Column
Desert rats
Atlas mountains
Monarch butterfly
Harpy eagle
Right whale

This leaves "Lamp" as the odd one out.

The first two names drawn out of the hat were Mary Strickland of Wilson Way and Cathy Halliday of Willow Crescent - so congratulations to these two ladies and also to the other entrants who sent in a correct solution but who were unsuccessful in the draw.

The puzzle for this issue is a Trackword. You have to make as many words as you can from those contained in the grid.

N	S	M
O	D	I

There are a few rules!

All words to be four or more letters

All words to include the central letter E

You have to find a 9 letter word

A letter may be used only once

Plurals are allowed

Whoever finds the most words wins!

Send your entries to Michael Spooner 43a Old School Lane Milton CB4 6BS or if you want to use e-mail send to mjsmilton@Tesco.net

Closing date is 7 May.

There are two prizes this month - a £15 Bettys Hair Design voucher kindly donated by Betty and a second prize of £10.

Barnabas Court

Recognising the need for specially designed accommodation for older people in Milton, Cambridge Housing Society built Barnabas Court in 2000. This was a partnership development initiative with the Parish Council and South Cambridgeshire District Council, and applications to live at Barnabas Court are restricted to people who have a connection with the village.

Situated close to the community centre and not far from other village facilities, the accommodation comprises spacious one and two bedroom flats with communal lounges where residents can meet if they wish. The common rooms are also used by other village organisations such as the Day Centre and Lunch Club.

Cambridge Housing Society employs a scheme manager who lives on site and who provides support to residents when necessary.

Vacancies occur from time to time and anyone who is interested in registering an application should contact the Housing Officer, Linda Keaveney on Cambridge 713555.

Milton Primary an Outstanding School

Milton primary school has been named as one of the most outstanding schools in the country, according to the Chief Inspector of Schools. In his annual report David Bell, Chief Inspector of OfSTED - the Office for Standards in Education - identified the school as one which had received an outstanding report from its inspection during 2002/03.

Inspectors described Milton Primary as a very good school which provides a very good quality of education for all its pupils.

It particularly praised the use of interactive smartboards, which inspectors said supported high quality teaching and enhanced pupils' learning.

Pupils in turn were praised for their positive attitudes and good behaviour. "Very enthusiastic attitudes towards school mean that children work very hard, behave very well and accept responsibility for their work and behaviour. Boys attain standards that are much higher than boys do nationally." Headteacher Tom Gillmore was also singled out for his good leadership of the school.
